2018-2019

Teacher: Ms. Bergez

Required Text:

Where the Red Fern Grows by Wilson Rawls

Project Brief:

For Summer Reading, you are required to read the above novel, Where the Red Fern Grows by Wilson Rawls, and complete the following project. I suggest you purchase and read the book early on during in your summer break so you will have enough time to read it thoroughly and complete the project on time.

For your project, you must choose SEVEN significant objects from the novel and explain why EACH is essential to the story's plot. For example, if you were reading "Snow White" instead, you might pick the poisoned apple as one of your objects. If the wicked Queen had never given Snow White the poisoned apple, Snow White would have never fallen asleep, and her Prince would never have rescued her. Furthermore, without the apple, the wicked Queen would never have come in contact with Snow White, fooled her, and believed that she, the Queen, was in fact the most beautiful woman alive. These key events progress the storyline; so, without them, the story could not advance the way it does. Ultimately, the story would be completely different without the apple.

Project Requirements:

- Include a Cover Page with the book's title, its author, and your name. Add an illustration to complete the Cover Page.
- Each object should have its own page.
- The objects you choose MUST BE objects. They may tangible (ex: an apple) OR intangible (ex: fear or love), but they may NOT be characters.
- On each page, include a TYPED explanation of the significance of the object. Each explanation should be a MINIMUM of 8 sentences long.
- On each page, include a DRAWN or PRINTED illustration of the object. All illustrations MUST be completely colored/colorful.
- Bind all of your completed pages together with a single staple in the upper left-hand corner. NO book report covers or jackets, please!
